HONGRONG, THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 1890. the aub-committee appointed to make arcans say, in the soup. There were two ways | coat according to their cloth. $12,000 is a of arranging the reception of the royal big sum to spend on entertaining a Prince visitors. One was to lay the matter before who is only passing through the Colony i. There is a vote might be requisite, the public will note: good deal to be said in favour of this mode by pleased it that voto is for a large of working. It is certainly the best in amount. To spend anything like $25,000 theory. But in practice it has never been would be ridicu'ons waste.

a success in Hongkong, as witness the continued bungling of the Jubilee arrangemente and the very unsatisfactory conclusion that was finally arrived at. The other way was for the Governor, after having obtained the sauction of the Council to spond money in 'receiving' the royal party, to nominate a select committee to carry out the arrangements. This was the course practically adopted; and, althoughitdoes not provide for the cooperation of the public so estentationaly as the other method, it is certainly the most expeditious way of doing business. Had there been a year to make attangements the Jubilee experiments might have been repeated, but with only a few weeks to come and go on it would have been risky to leave such a matter to the mercy of public meetings. And, to tell the honest truth, there is little enthusiasmin the community about the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught. The most of the residents are doubtless, like Mr Humphreys, willing to show their loyalty when the occasion demands it, but the fact of a member of the royal family passing through Hougkong on his may to Bank Corp., payable at the Offices of England scarcely calls for an effusive display.

Now Oriental Bank Corp. Post Our neighbours in Singapore are to content Our neighbours in Singapore are to content themselves with a reception at Government House, while our compatriots at Colombo are to exhaust their tee ings by repairing a landing stage, which it is feared the Duke might fall through;

Hongkong of course is somewhat differ-4-p.m.-Extraordinary Meeting of Share- ently situated. In Colombo and Singapore, their royal highnesses only remain as long as the steamer they are travelling by is in port-at most twenty-four hours. Here H.K. & Whampon Dock Co., Ltd., at | they will make a stay of three or four days, and the Duke is to be asked to perform a semi-public function by laying the foundation stone or doing something or other in Insurance Office, Ltd., to be sent in connection with the Praya Reclamation schemo. It was meet therefore that we should make some sort of display. As we have said, the sub-committee appointed was doing all that might be reasonably expected of them. The principles on which they had to work were laid down at the meeting of the general committee, a report of which, appeared in the China Mail the same evening, and before finally settling on the programme, the sub-committee had the good sense to submit it by circular to all the members of the very representative expanded committee, with a request for suggestions. And-pace Mr Francis-this was really the most expeditious way of going about the business. The programme having been bodying all the latest improvements in arranged and submitted to the General Committee, it was telegraphed to the Duke and his approval obtained. The day after the reception of his approval, particulars with regard to the arrangements were added a Condenser capable of supplying us published by us. We believe the publicwith 3,000 gallons of distilled water a day, were quite satisfied with what the committee had done, and did not wish to be troubled with the matter. The only item in the programme to which objection might be taken was the illuminations, which are scarcely necessary. But provided the committee did not exceed very much the vote of money accorded to them, the public would not have taken exception to this form of demonstration, and we are sure had the committee addressed, as it was their intention to do, the leading members of the community they would have obtained their co-FOR COAST PORTS, Waters are packed operation for a moderate display. Everything, as we have said, was going on well, Packages and Empties when received in Our morning contemporary, however, and denly discovered after the committee had been in existence for three or four weeksthat the public had not been consulted and clamoured for a public meeting. The cause of this sudden sbuittion of feeling it is difficult to imagine, unless it be that the Laily. Press was somewhat chagrined at not having been the first to obtain information about the doings of the committee. That our contemporary was not in this matter an exponent of public feeling was evidenced by the meeting beld yesterday, at which, apart SELTZER WATER from the committee, those present might have been counted almost on the fingers of one hand. However, the Hon. Secretary and the sub-committee appear to have attached some importance to the grumbling, and were weak enough, in the vain endeayour to satisfy all partice, to call a public meeting, after the programme had been definitely settled and approved of by the Duke. The result was to deliver themselves over to the tender mercies of Mr Francis, who had no difficulty in driving homa his shafte. What good can be got by holding another meeting, we fail to discover. It would be bad taste to go back on the programme. The only thing to be done now is to varry out this details, and for that a public meeting is wholly unsuitable. THERE is at present a large amount of sick ness from minor ailments amongst all acctions of the community, due, doubtless, to the sudden changes of the temperature. Cases bearing a strong resemblance to the Russian Influenza are to be found here and there, but nothing like the epidemic form of this complaint has yet shown itself here. The Home papers, by the way, have got held of the theory that the epidemic of Influenza originated in North Chius, from whence the dust of the Siberian descri varried it across to Russia in Europe, and on to the continent generally. In his notes to the Illustrated London News, Mr James Payn remarks that, as tea-leaves are well known to lay dust, he is surprised that this objectionable dust was not so treated in the Land of Tea before it had a chance to start of Singapore.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of ! Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its Eighteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papore on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Goography, History, Literature, Through Bills of Lading issued for trans- Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction,

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to giv critiques embodying sketches of the Mos recent works on such topics. Authors an Publishers are requested to forward work to 'Editor, China Review, care of China advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'-Celestial Empire. This number contains several article of interest and value. - North-China Herak 'The China Review for September-Octobe fully maintains the high standard excellence which characterises that publ ation, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Moteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880; "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of " The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.'-North-China Daily News.

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise. - Ohrysanthemum. The November-Decomber number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number.'-H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :-

The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Culcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years Student's Reading Room and Library, upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of informaation, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' curps, and the missionary body among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors Some translations from Chinese novels and ness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. R. C. Bowrs, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Bosids notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a meful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that 'Notes! and 'Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary seal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predemay receive the support necessary to lasure
